Description

In the space provided below, summarize this project. The summary should include the project objectives and your role, as well as key deliverables and outcomes by Process Groups. The description should include examples of how you led and directed this project. Ensure that your description is between 300 and 550 characters. *

While it is a bit pricier than PMI's on-demand course, you are getting a lot more value from the boot camp online training.   Good luck! PATH #3: Take non-ATP on-demand course If your company is not going to sponsor your PMP certification, and you have a limited budget, you can still opt for non-ATP courses and still earn 35-contact hours. For example, you can be negotiating and be closing a sales contract and used various techniques outlined in the PMBOK guide.   One project does not have to cover all the domain areas, but PMI does expect that you have project leading or management experience that covers all 5 process groups. PMP application changes in 2020/2021 Please be aware that PMI made a few important changes to the PMI application in June 2020. PM Precpast has the most highly rated PMP Exam simulator when you get savings when you buy its Elite or Elite PLUS courses and the exam simulator together. All rights reserved. I had titles like infrastructure manager and solution consultant.  As long as you can document the project methodologies and your reviewer will acknowledge and approve your work (in case of an audit), you will be fine.  Also, refer to PMP without Project Management title. PMI defines a project as "a temporary endeavor to create a product, service, or result." Pick projects that you manage and lead the project. According to PMP Handbook (under PMP Application and Payment section), "The experience does not necessarily have to be paid work, but it does need to be in a professional setting. Also, you can use the GAC course work to fulfill the 35 education contact hour requirement. The purpose is to craft a template that works for you and includes key information to help you identify the project description, avoiding cut & paste errors when you transfer the information to the PMP online application. This commission comes at no additional cost to you. PMP Application Template Checklist The template must have at the minimum: Obj, JN/PL/EX/MC/CL, OutcomeAdd any optional field that works for you, such as Role. The key to success for most PMP aspirants is plenty of practice to get comfortable with the PMP exam questions. If your application is audited, please refer to the PMP audit preparation, where I answer commonly asked questions and help you get through the audit. If you have similar projects, you can take what you completed, make a copy, and adjust accordingly. PMP application tips In this video, I shared the tips for PMP application and lay out the foundation on how you can write your PMP project description experience easily. In a nutshell: Prioritize and write the longest project first. You will need to obtain the contact information if they are no longer working for the company.Contact and inform your reviewer ahead of time. PM PrepCast Exam Simulator ($149.00) For most people, including myself, plenty of practice is the best way to retain the learning and understand "PMI-ism." PM-Precpast exam simulator is the leader and is highly rated among PMP aspirants. Activities such as school projects or planning personal events would not qualify." Yes, as long as the person is familiar with all your projects. In the case of an audit, the person will not physically meet your reviewer. But, he/she needs to verify and sign your PMP application. PMP Application Experience Project Title: it should be concise and unique.Organization: Where the project was carried out.Job Title: Your job title at the organization.Functional Reporting Area: Pick a functional area most resembles your team.Organization Primary Focus: Industry that best fits your organization.Approach/Methodology: Choose from Traditional (Waterfall), Agile, or HybridProject Team Size: Pick the range of team members involved in the project.Project Budget (in USD): Give your best estimate of the budget.Project Dates: Provide the start and end date of the project. You want to avoid the situation when no one can validate your application if your application is selected for a random audit. You can have a different reviewer per project. Just focus on gathering the relevant methodologies, and don't worry about editing yet. Writing the PMP application project description is where most PMP aspirants struggle and look for assistance. We will go over the PMP application process step by step below, but in a nutshell, this is what we will cover: What are the PMP application requirements? Next – Prepare for the PMP Exam Once you complete the application, you need to ramp up your effort in preparing for the PMP exam. You may need a study guide to help you prepare for the PMP exam. To help you write this, you can extract the project methodologies from the PMP project description reference sheet. it is okay if the jargon is related to project methodologies. Don't worry; you can always come back and make adjustments. The most challenging part for most PMP aspirants is the work experience section, where I will take a deep dive to provide tips, examples, and show how you can write the project description easily. The school you attended will dictate the number of years of project management experience needed to complete the application. You can also select "In Progress" if the project is ongoing.Project Description:  Provide a high-level description that summarizes your experience and includes the project objective, role, responsibilities, and outcome.  A typical response is 200 to 500 words. PATH #2: Take ATP's live virtual training course Alternatively, you can opt for live PMP boot camp online training with a live instructor and a supportive learning environment.  The PMP boot camp training will typically cost between $1000 to $2000.  A few popular ATP include PMTraining, Project Management Academy, and GreyCampus.  Or you can check out the PM comparison chart side by side. There are several pieces to the application that you will need to complete before you can submit it for PMI's approval. You will get a $79 bundle savings with the Elite package. This is the core of your project description. Prepare for PMP Application Audit (just in case) While the application no longer asks you to include who will review your application when your application is audited, it will be a good idea to plan ahead. However, I will focus my attention on the PMP Application Experience section. PMI will automatically discount the overlap when aggregating the month of your work experience. PMP Application Academic Education PMP Application Academic Education Academic Education is straightforward. Don't worry, it's not as hard as it seems, and you will be writing like a pro shortly. Completing the PMP application is the first step in the PMP Certification process. Make the necessary adjustment to make your PMP application project description flow better and reflects your project. As one of the PMP application requirements, the PMP aspirant must complete relevant professional education in project management. Additional $35 off the regular price of $349.00Includes PMP Exam simulator ($79 savings)Discounted price: $314.00Sales Date: 01 May 2022 to 31 May 2022Coupon code: May22 PM PrepCast Elite PLUS ($389) The PM PrepCast Elite Plus includes everything in the Elite package, plus the PM StudyCoach Guidebooks, and the PM Formula Guides. Learn more about PMI GAC for Project Management Education Program. Simply extract the methodologies that are applicable to your project and place them under the appropriate domain group in the template you created. To get started with your application, simply navigate to Project Management Professional (PMP) page, and you will be greeted with "Apply for PMP Certification." You will need to complete and submit the PMP application online. Step 3.3: Write the objective and outcome. If your status shows you are eligible to take the PMP exam and the clock starts ticking from the 1-year mark, it's almost for certain you pass the PMP application process. How to check PMP application status You can check your latest PMP application status from your dashboard on PMI. You should select projects that you took a leadership role and managed the project, not just a participant or coordinator role. a Do I have to use domain groups (IN, PL, EX, MC, CL) in the descriptions? Last Updated on May 5, 2022 by andrewshih Are you looking for help with the PMP application? PMI's definition's project is a temporary endeavor to create a unique product, service, or result. If they are different projects, you should write a project description for each of them. Writing many project descriptions can sound tedious (and it is), but you can copy and paste to create more project descriptions quickly and simply make small adjustments. For those similar projects. Process FAQ PMI requires all candidates to satisfy the requirements before taking the PMP exam.  In summary, here are the minimum requirements, depending on if you have a 4-year college degree or not. PMP Application Overlapping Projects If you have projects that overlap the timeline, you should still write a separate PMP application experience for each project. All of the above are fine and none issues.  You can have as many projects as you want, as long and as short as you want.  Obviously, to save your time, I would recommend write project descriptions with the longest duration until you fulfill the minimum 3-year or 5-year requirement depending on your educational background.  It's perfectly fine to have gaps, leave out the smaller projects, and omit the overlapping projects; this is not a resume/cv so it's perfectly fine to have gaps if this was your concern. It would be best to choose someone familiar with your project, and mostly this person will be your direct manager or your colleague.  It is also a good idea to have a backup person in mind. Many of the most reputable training providers are now ATP. Completing the application can be daunting and confusing, especially when going through the process for the first (and hopefully the only) time. PMI provided the PMP application tips and stated the following: Project descriptions should consist of the following: A brief, one-sentence project objectiveProject deliverables summarized by process areas (Initiating, Planning, Executing, Monitoring and Controlling, and Closing – abbreviations are acceptable IN, PL, EX, MC & CL)A brief, one-sentence project outcome PMP Application Template: Objective: Initiating: Planning: Executing: Monitoring & Controlling: Closing: Outcome: You may also include your "Role" (typically placed under the "Objective") for the project. The training style is engaging and easy to understand. It may look a bit overwhelming writing such a long project description for each of your PMP application experiences. While the job title doesn't matter, you will need to be able to demonstrate the following with your work experience.  According to PMBOK guide: Perform their duties under general supervision and are responsible for all aspects of the project for the life of the project.Lead and direct cross-functional teams to deliver projects within the constraints of schedule, budget, and resources.Demonstrate sufficient knowledge and experience to appropriately apply a methodology to projects that have reasonably well-defined project requirements and deliverables. To accompany the on-demand learning, you will need to invest in a quality PMP exam simulator such as PM-Prepcast (Check the latest coupon code) which is highly recommended on Reddit by PMP aspirants who pass the PMP Exam. Most of the PMP aspirants will write up several projects to meet the PMP application requirements. You will need to have at least one project that covers all 5 domain groups, or you can have multiple projects in order to complete the coverage of 5 domain groups. PMI wants to see you have experience from initiating to closing the project, regardless of the number of the projects you do.  You also need to have enough project experience to satisfy the minimum requirement. Most ATP may sweeten the boot camp training package by including the PMP exam simulator, study material, PMP application assistance, or exam-pass guarantee. The samples are only meant to provide guidance, and you should not copy word for word from the samples. The Global Accreditation Center (GAC) for Project Management Education Programs is an independent academic accreditation body with project management and related programs at the bachelor's, master's and doctoral degree levels. Once you submit the application, you will not be able to change it at all.  If you want to change it after you submit the application, the only thing the audit team can do is reject your application, and you will need to complete the whole application again. However, you should avoid using technical jargon and abbreviations only known to experts in your industry or company. Here are a few key changes: PMI removed the 4500 (or 7500 without a 4-year college degree) hours of project management experience as part of the requirement.PMI no longer restricts project description to 550 characters. If you are willing to share your project description or have a general question related to the PMP application that may benefit other PMP aspirants, feel free to comment below. The plugin will help you earn cashback at many other online retail stores such as Target, Microsoft, Dell, Disney+, and many more. Among all the tools and resource out there, the number one tool I would strongly recommend is getting a Premium Exam Simulator to help you prepare for the exam.
